

Ducking the issue

Shame on Roger the Dodger and Rita Spendalotti and their minions on the eyesore that is the unwanted Perth racetrack.

On Sunday, there was a family of ducks trying to cross the road from the oval side to the tennis centre side. There was hardly anywhere these lovely little creatures could go thanks to their habitat being taken away from them.

I have seen them on the verge most weekends and it is very sad.

Also, I hope Basil Zempilas becomes our Premier and brings in new shopping hours — it is long overdue that we catch up with the rest of the country.
