

Are you not entertained?

John Rice (Letters, 28/4) has suggested a variety of alternative races that could be hosted on Rita's racetrack.

I think Mr Rice has missed a trick here. We need chariot races between Rita, as Boadicea, and Basil Zempilas, as Ben Hur.

They could finish up doing a lap around Optus Stadium and then have a gladiatorial combat exhibition — it beats cage fighting — with the winner to be decided by our very own Caesar, Roger Cook.
