

Grand payback

Oh, poor little Victoria losing MotoGP to South Australia (News, 19/2).

Was a different story in 1993 when Jeff Kennett's government paid an undisclosed sum of money to get the F1 racing moved from Adelaide to Melbourne. Lots of crowing then about that coup.

Could be good for WA, though, as once the Burswood racetrack is finished our illustrious leaders of fun and entertainment could bid to take over both events. Not!
