

Not a sport of today

The idea of building a race track in a delightful part of Perth shows Rita Saffioti's arrogance and disregard of the public's wishes.

The sport flies in the face of our attempts to reduce emissions and their impact on global warming.

We have a Government more interested in self-aggrandisement than common sense.

Michael Flacks, Kelmscott