

Baz Balls up?

Revelations the State Government nakedly spin-doctored analysis of the Burswood speedway were pretty awkward for Saffioti, as the Treasurer was caught touting statistics she knew were effectively fictional.

But The Bull must observe Liberal leader Basil Zempilas' calculations on so-called Perth Park have also been a bit of a supercar wreck.

Back in July, the former footy commentator declared "Labor is spending $217.5m on a racetrack while WA's prisons are bursting at the seams". In September, he wanted the money to go to health.

When November arrived, he was urging the cash instead fund the redevelopment of Perth Convention Centre.

Rita may tout her (operating) surplus but "Bell Tower in the Swan" Baz clearly has a surplus of ideas to spend it on.
