

Too busy to fix hospitals

How can Roger Cook think of fixing water problems at hospitals and housing for the needy when he is busy either dreaming of his beloved rugby team coming over here or racing around in souped-up cars on a racetrack with Rita?

Garry Williams, Dudley Park