

One point ignored

I look forward each Thursday for Rita Saffioti's 10 points, and even more to Friday when Basil Zempilas makes his 10 comments. I would like to know if and when Rita might make a comment about the herd of elephants in the room which is the overwhelming negativity regarding the Burswood racetrack debacle.

Surely she and Roger can't go on indefinitely totally ignoring what is becoming a very controversial and unwanted plan.

As has been mentioned before — by many — an about turn on the “election promise” would be a very welcome decision.
